NOTE: Please be advised that the position of General Manager, Head Coach, and/or Assistant Coach is one that will be filled on an annual basis for the WJAC event. Interested individuals must apply yearly. One of the CJHL objectives for the event is to provide development opportunities, not only for players, but for managers, coaches and support staff. To that end, the CJHL and Hockey Canada have designed a selection process to promote the constant flow of opportunities in this area for as many qualified individuals as possible. We believe that turnover along with fresh ideas and thinking will enhance the ability of the program to develop meaningful learning experiences for committed and hard-working professional hockey people in Canadian Junior hockey.
